Letter to Children/Parents/Carers of Conkers Class

Dear Conkers,

Well this is a quiet time not having you at school. I hope you are being good at home and helping as much as you possibly can. You may have heard that there are some children attending Stoke school with us. This is not because they are more important or more special than you, it is because they are not able to stay at home like most of you. You are all equally important and equally special and we really look forward to having you back in school when the time is right. For now, we all have to stay at home to keep each other safe. Enjoy this time with your family and make some super memories together of new things that you learn.

When you are older, children might ask you what it was like to live through this time in our history! Imagine that, you are playing your part in an amazing story; sometimes testing and a bit strange but full of kindness, hope, resilience and humour. Don't forget to the humour!

I miss you all and hope that you are in touch with each other using the amazing technology that is available. You might have whizzed through the learning packs that you were given or you might have just done a little; I don't want you to worry, just do your best, but remember that your learning is important and that the best learning comes when you push yourself. Don't always wait for the grown-ups to get you going!

Now that we have had a little time to get used to our new situation, I will send you a guide at the end of this week to help you learn through the weeks ahead. We hope to harness technology to share and celebrate the work that you are doing at home.

Year 6 - Get thinking about how you would like to celebrate your time at Croscombe and we will make it happen for you.

In the meantime check out some of these links, there is a combination of writing and artwork to get you inspired:

Oliver Jeffers - stay at home storytime, Tom McLaughlin - Learn to draw Chitra Soundar - a new stay at home story, reading aloud Ken Wilson-Max - reading aloud James Mayhew - telling and illustrating traditional tales Toppsta - Daily Author/Illustrator online event timetables.

Thinking of you all.
